Media Release: October 12, 2021

On September 3, 2021, a LeRoy Police Officer attempted to stop a red Ford Mustang for a traffic violation. The vehicle fled, in excess of 100 mph, and the officer terminated his efforts to stop the vehicle due to public safety concerns. An investigation began that resulted in two arrests. On 9-28-2021, LeRoy Police arrested Trisha L. Voiles, 47, Atlanta IL, for Obstruction of Justice. On 10-8-2021, Nathan P. Rich, 33, Atlanta IL, was arrested on an outstanding McLean County warrant stemming from this investigation on charges of Driving While License is Revoked and Aggravated Fleeing/Eluding Police. Rich was arrested in Lincoln IL by the US Marshal's task force. Bond on this warrant was $20,000 (10%). Rich had other warrants as well. LeRoy Police seized the mustang pursuant to Article 36 forfeiture.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
