MEDIA RELEASE

***October 15, 2022: LeRoy Police Add K9 to the Force***

Please welcome the newest member of the LeRoy Police Department, K9 Eve. Eve is an 18 month old female German Shepherd. She and her handler, Officer Brian Murphy, recently completed new K9 team training and state certification at the Kane County Sheriff's K9 Academy. Eve is certified on narcotics detection and tracking.

The addition of K9 Eve was made possible by a $25,017 grant the LeRoy Police Department received from the United States Department of Justice Bureau of Justice Assistance Northern and Middle State's Rural Law Enforcement Assistance Program for the purchase of a police K9, K9 equipment for the police vehicle, and K9 and Handler training. The grant was administered by NW3C.

The LeRoy Police Department would like to give a special thank you to LeRoy True Value for donating Eve's food on a recurring basis and the LeRoy Vet Clinic for donating ongoing basic medical care for Eve in support of the LeRoy PD K9 program.
