 Domestic Violence Standoff ends in Arrest *****

On Tuesday, December 27, 2022 LeRoy Police Officers and McLean County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to an address on S. East St. for an unknown problem. A person had been heard yelling for help there. Upon arrival officers and deputies were able to remove the victim from the residence. Officers and deputies attempted for over an hour to negotiate with the suspect, whom they had probable cause to arrest. Officers and deputies located the suspect in the basement and arrested him.

Bradley W. Simmons Jr, 28, LeRoy, was arrested on preliminary charges of Domestic Battery, Unlawful Restraint, and Resisting Arrest. The McLean County State's Attorney approved charges on 12/28/22 of Aggravated Battery, Unlawful Restraint, and Domestic Battery. During a bond hearing on 12/28/2022, bond was set at $100,000 10%.

LeRoy PD thanks the McLean County Sheriff's Department for their assistance in this case.
